Health Center Partners of Southern California Elects New Board Officers and Committee Chairs

Seasoned Executives Strengthen Leadership Team and Bring Fresh Perspectives to Regional Healthcare Advocacy Consortium

SAN DIEGO—(Jan. 10, 2017)—Health Center Partners of Southern California, a leading consortium of community health centers in San Diego, Riverside and Imperial Counties, today announced the election of four new board officers and five new committee chairs. These appointments further fortify organizational leadership and position Health Center Partners to optimize efforts to ensure access to quality care for all.

The new Health Center Partners board officers are:

- Chair: Kevin Mattson, president and CEO, San Ysidro Health Center
- Vice Chair: Roberta Feinberg, CEO, San Diego Family Care
- Secretary: Lori Holeman, CEO, Community Health Systems, Inc.
- Treasurer: Bruce Hebets, CEO, Borrego Community Health Foundation

The new Health Center Partners committee chairs are:

- Governance: Kevin Mattson, president and CEO, San Ysidro Health Center
- Finance: Bruce Hebets, CEO, Borrego Community Health Foundation
- Audit: Irma Cota, president and CEO, North County Health Services
- Policy: Tracy Ream, CEO, Neighborhood Healthcare
- Bylaws: Judith Shaplin, CEO, Mountain Health

“It is with sincere gratitude that we welcome our new board officers and committee chairs,” said Henry Tuttle, CEO of Health Center Partners. “Each of these individuals brings a deep understanding of the challenges we face in ensuring access to quality and affordable health care for the more than 800,000 patients our member centers serve. The Health Center Partners executive team and I look forward to working collaboratively with board members, legislators and other policymakers to find sustainable solutions to build stronger, healthier communities in the year ahead.”
