Biography: Assemblymember Sabrina Cervantes was elected in November 2016 to represent California's 60th Assembly District, which includes the cities of Corona, Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Norco, a portion of Riverside, and unincorporated communities of Home Gardens, El Cerrito, and Coronita.

As a state legislator, Sabrina has worked continuously to serve her community and enhance the quality of life for Riverside County residents. Sabrina's top priorities include veterans, public safety, transportation, higher education and the economy.

In her first year, she authored legislation to support veterans, students, seniors, and working families-six of which were signed into law. In addition, she secured $427 million in critical transportation funding to improve Riverside County's infrastructure and was instrumental in restoring Vehicle License Fee revenue to California's newest cities, which include Jurupa Valley and Eastvale.

Previously, she served as a Director for the Legislature and the California Voter Project. Prior to serving in the Assembly, Sabrina worked in the private sector alongside various community organizations to enhance the local economy, broaden access to quality education, and improve access to governmental services.

Throughout her career, Sabrina has demonstrated her commitment to fighting for the best interests of local residents through multiple partnerships with community organizations. She is currently a member of the Human Rights Campaign, The PICK Group of Young Professionals,
