

The HIV/AIDS epidemic continues to be a major health crisis in our community affecting increasing numbers of women.

This event provides current information on HIV prevention, up to date treatment strategies and mental health issues. The event will address HIV awareness, life skills, prevention, treatment, and advocacy. This event will offer educational materials, sharing, learning and empowerment. The plenary presentations will have simultaneous translation in Spanish.

Back again this year, the youth group is intended for girls ages 12-16. Girls wishing to participate in the youth group should each complete a separate registration form.

You should attend this event if you:

- Are a woman living with HIV/AIDS
- Are a health care provider, counselor, caregiver, or outreach worker
- Are a woman concerned or at risk of becoming infected with HIV
- Know a woman who is HIV positive
- Are concerned about HIV/AIDS in your family, circle of friends, community, church or workplace
- A girl between the ages of 12-18 affected by HIV/AIDS

Attendees of this event will be able to:

- Describe trends in prevention of HIV and treatment in women with HIV/AIDS
- Discuss the steps women can take toward positive living and working with HIV/AIDS
- Define mental health and substance abuse issues related to women with HIV/AIDS
- Identify local resources for women

A Woman's Voice

Dr. Neva Chauppette

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Neva Chauppette is a licensed Psychologist in part-time private practice in Los Angeles. She is the full-time Project Director of a mobile medical clinic that provides free and comprehensive HIV, Hepatitis ABC, and STD services to at-risk individuals. She is the former Clinical Director of an outpatient mental health clinic for women of color with multiple morbidities (HIV, HCV, psychiatric illness and substance misuse). Dr. Chauppette is a consultant to AIDS Healthcare Foundation, assisting physicians with the mental health and addiction needs of their patients. She is also a consultant to numerous HIV, mental health, and addiction treatment providers in California.

Jacki Gethner

Plenary Speaker

Jacki is a Licensed Massage Therapist and Certified Drug & Alcohol Counselor. She is an international health advocate, activist, and educator. Since 1987, through both her private practice and now through her non-profit Women of a Certain Age (WOACA), she educates and empowers diverse populations to be their personal best. She has been the recipient of national awards and featured in national publications. Jacki is the author of Behind Door #3: Choose with Your Eyes Wide Open. This book was written to give women a personal opportunity to examine relationship choices of the past, and with new information have greater options going forward.

*Speakers subject to change

A Woman's Voice is funded in part by the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA) through the County of San Diego, Health & Human Services Agency, by Christie's Place and through the UC San Diego Mother, Child & Adolescent HIV Program, and in part by the HHS, Office on Women's Health.
