2014 San Diego Wellness and Recovery Summit:

Wednesday March 19, 2014 9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

This year's theme is “Celebrate Your Future”.

Our personal recovery and wellness journeys can, at times, be pretty tough work. It's important to take time occasionally to recognize what we are working for. Our time and efforts today will be creating our successes tomorrow. So, this year, our activities and presentations will focus on our hopes, expectations and small steps we can take today to support our future accomplishments. We look forward to you joining us to Celebrate Your Future!

Continental breakfast and lunch are included. Winners of the “This Person Award” will be honored. These awards recognize and show appreciation for the continuous support provided by the people who encouraged individuals in recovery by showing their love and never ending belief in their strengths and abilities!

How to nominate your “This Person”:

send in your completed nomination form along with your registration by February 14, 2014, and describe how “This person” you are nominating helped you on your journey of recovery.

“This Person” nomination form can be found on the backside of the summit registration form.

(Recovery Innovations employees are not eligible for nomination)

Resource tables for community agencies and programs will be present for resource and networking opportunities.
