

Indian Health Council

Indian Health Council, Inc. (IHC) is a consortium of nine tribes dedicated to the continual betterment of Indian health, wholeness, and well-being. With a main facility located adjacent to the Rincon reservation in Pauma Valley and the Santa Ysabel Community Health Center located on the Santa Ysabel Reservation, IHC provides a full spectrum of on-site and outreach services and programs to the North San Diego County reservations and Tribal communities of Inaja-Cosmit, La Jolla, Los Coyotes, Mesa Grande, Pala, Pauma, Rincon, San Pasqual, and Santa Ysabel and north San Diego County.

Indian Health Council continues to honor its 40-year-old roots, its reason for being, and the people it has pledged to serve.

Indian Health Council, Inc. employs 150 people, many from the consortium community. They serve 15,000 clients with an array of culturally appropriate health care and related services which range from prenatal to geriatric; from well-child to adult fitness classes to diabetes clinics; from youth substance abuse prevention to domestic violence programs. Periodic services include podiatry, orthodontics, mammography, eye clinics, and others. With the aid of IHC's mobile fleet, outreach efforts such as health fairs, youth programs, rabies clinics, and environmental health services extend the clinic's reach into the communities it serves.
