

Southern Indian Health Council

Southern Indian Health Council, Inc. (SIHC) is a AAAHC accredited Tribal health program serving Natives and non-Natives. SIHC is comprised of a seven member Tribal consortium: Barona, Campo, Ewiiaapaayp, Jamul, La Posta, Manzanita and Viejas. SIHC is committed to protecting and improving the healthcare of patients by providing quality integrated services which include a comprehensive wellness program, acute and chronic healthcare, dental, and social services.

Good Medicine is Our Tradition

Programs Offered:

- Medical
- Dental
- Pharmacy
- Kumeyaay Family Services
- Community Health Services

Community Served:

- Natives and Non-Natives
- Open to the general public

(619) 445-1188 | www.SIHC.org