The undersigned authorized staff member of the Member Organization has requested access to the HCP Learning Center and acknowledges the following

1. The Member Organization understands and acknowledges that no attorney-client relationship is being established between HCP and FTLF, or between FTLF and the Member Organization. If legal advice or expert assistance is required, the Member Organization may seek such advice or assistance from the attorney or expert of its choice.
2. The Member Organization understands and agrees that, unless otherwise indicated, FTLF holds the copyright for the content for the resources prepared and/or shared in the HCP Learning Center, including but not limited to presentation slides, handouts, checklists, sample forms, sample policies and procedures, video and audio recordings, and any other related materials otherwise made accessible to the Member Organization.
3. Only authorized staff of the Member Organization may access the HCP Learning Center and any materials contained therein. The Member Organization shall not record or copy any FTLF training sessions or resources, including any video or audio recordings, photocopies, screenshots, etc., without FTLF's prior permission. Should the Member Organization make FTLF work product available publicly or otherwise share it (e.g., by sharing passwords, access codes, or promo discount codes), HCP may terminate this User Agreement and all access to HCP's Learning Center immediately.
